Pastor's Message

Father's Day is coming up quickly and it makes me think of what it means to be a good father. It means more to be a good father than a great worker, great athlete, rich, powerful and most other things. But where does it fall in our priorities? We say it, I think we know it, but too often don't live it. It's so easy to get wrapped up in the other things that are good and need your attention and need to get done that we too often neglect the things that are more important, like time with the Lord, time with our spouses, and time with our family. That is the hard thing, the balancing act! Work needs to be done to pay the bills and put food on the table, the yard needs mowed and cars need fixed. Things need done but don't neglect the most important things. God first! Family second. Your kids need you and need time with you. They need your example, wisdom, guidance, protection, and discipline. They may not admit it, but they do. If you are not building and investing in your children, who is? If you are not teaching and instructing them, who is? Hollywood, social media, their friends? Your children are being influenced by things, but one of the most important should be their father!

They are facing a lot of challenges, battles, lies, distractions, and traps. You can't keep them from every one of the hard things or bad things, but what you can do is work on preparing their hearts and minds to be ready for the hard things and help them make good choices. They need to be solid in the Lord, in His Word and in His ways. He is what they need more than anything! They also need fathers to be involved, to care, spend time with them, to do better at balancing everything that we need to do so we can do more with them. Even if they are older, you are still their father. You still can influence them and impact their life for the better. To the fathers out there, it's not easy. It's a huge responsibility, but worth the work and time invested! Go be a father, using the Heavenly Father as the perfect example to follow.

So goes the father, so goes the family
So goes the family, so goes the church
So goes the church, so goes the community
So goes the community, so goes the nation

Chorus

*Home where the streets are golden
Every chain is broken
Oh, I wanna go, Oh, I wanna go
Home where every fear is gone
I'm in Your open arms
Where I belong*

*Blinded eyes will finally see
The dead will rise on the shores of eternity
The trump will sound, the angels will sing
Hallelujah, hallelujah I am goin HOME*

Oh, the day that the Trump will sound and we will see him! The Angels will sing hallelujah!!

Are you ready for HOME??

Mission Trip to Colorado

We are almost maxed out with 29 people heading to Fort Collins on July 2 through July 12! We have room for 3 more people if you are interested. Right now, the cost is $300 per person but we may lower that to $200 depending on how the van rentals work out. We will be working with a lady in the Fort Collins area to replace a privacy fence and do some painting and landscaping. We also hope to do some work for the Larimer County Food Bank. We will be close to Rocky Mountain National Park and part of the trip will involve hiking in the mountains!

A generous donor is giving us $1200 towards one of the van rentals! We are taking two 15 passenger vans and each one will cost around $1800 (fuel and rental) for the round trip so this is welcome news.

The trip is open to all youth and adults who want to go. We plan to drive out so any extra drivers would be welcome. And anyone with construction experience would be helpful! Contact Mark Hupp at 419-961-8950 or mhupp4082@gmail.com if you are interested in participating in the mission trip.

Running blind

Years ago, I worked at a summer Bible camp with my cousin Erik. As an evening staff meeting concluded, a sprinkle suddenly became a downpour. Counselors sprinted off toward cabins, while Erik and I, who didn't supervise youngsters, debated whether to wait out the storm.

We opted to run for it, but being visually impaired, I soon realized the sheets of rain, added to the dark, hindered my view. "I can't see!" I yelled through the wind to Erik. Immediately, he grabbed my hand, pulling me along. "It's okay!" he shouted back. "I can!"

The sensation of running blindly yet feeling so secure became a metaphor for me about what I can handle and accomplish through faith. When I let God grab my hand and guide me, even when I'm running through dark, stormy times, I experience peace. For though I cannot see what lies ahead, I know God can.

Vacation Bible School will be held this year July 15-18th in Butler, mark your calendars to bring your kids, grandkids, neighbor kids, etc.

We are planning a sports theme again like we did 2 years ago and we are in need of volunteers to share different talents with the children. Before we had Football, volleyball, track, cooking, sewing, and many more. Do you have something you would like to share with the kids? It would only have to be one night, but we are in need of different things to have available for the children to choose from.
